ENGLISH, GRADE ELEVEN COLLEGE PREPARATION (ENG3C) COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course emphasizes the development of literacy, communication, and critical and creative thinking skills necessary for success in academic and daily life. Students will analyse challenging literary texts from various periods, countries, and cultures, as well as a range of informational and graphic texts, and create oral, written, and media texts in a variety of forms. An important focus will be on using language with precision and clarity and incorporating stylistic devices appropriately and effectively. The course is intended to prepare students for the compulsory Grade 12 university or college preparation course.

Prerequisite: English, Grade 10, Academic/Applied

UNITS OF STUDY

1 BREAKING BAD : A DYSTOPIC VISION

students will be engaged in active/critical reading and writing activities based on the television show, Breaking Bad, and William Shakespeare's, Macbeth.

2 DYSTOPIC LITERATURE/CINEMA AND HUNGER GAMES

students will analyse various dystopic texts (literary, cinematic) in comparison to Suzanne Collins, Hunger Games

3 BREAKING FREE

students will analyse and perform various short stories and poetry

4 THE NON-FICTIONAL WORLD

students will read and analyse various non-fictional (literary and documentary-based) texts and write/produce creative non-fiction (multi-media product, biography)

LEARNING SKILLS AND WORK HABITS

On every report card, students are evaluated on six learning skills and work habits separately from their mark. They identify the student's strengths and the areas in which improvements are needed and will be evaluated and reported as: excellent (E), good (G), satisfactory (S), and needs improvement (N). The six learning skills and work habits are:

- responsibility
- organization
- independent work
- collaboration
- initiative
- self regulation

ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION

Ongoing assessment will occur to allow students the opportunity to be successful. Students will be evaluated in four categories of the achievement chart. The four categories are knowledge, thinking/inquiry, communication, and application.

Seventy percent of the grade will be based on assessments conducted throughout the course. This portion of the grade reflects the student's most consistent level of achievement throughout the course, although special consideration is given to more recent evidence of achievement. Thirty percent of the course

RESOURCES

It is expected that students will take reasonable care of those materials on loan and handed out to them. Students with outstanding textbooks and/or course materials will be expected to pay for the replacement cost of the textbooks/materials owing.

SCHOOL POLICIES

Please refer to your agenda for the Attendance Policy, Late Policy, and expectations for Classroom Behaviour.

LATE OR MISSED WORK

In fairness to all students, late assignments will not be accepted after the subject teacher returns the marked assignment, unless there are extraordinary circumstances.

Students have an obligation to be present for all examinations, tests, quizzes, presentations and other evaluations unless alternative arrangements have been approved in advance by the subject teacher. Failure to do so could result in a “0” mark in accordance with the TDSB Evaluation and Reporting Policy. Students who are on a prolonged absence must notify the school. Prolonged absences will place the student’s credit in jeopardy.

ACADEMIC HONESTY / PLAGIARISM

When you intentionally, or unintentionally, use or pass off someone else’s words, ideas, or images as your own, you are plagiarizing. Unless you give proper credit, you are stealing and it is wrong. Plagiarism is a form of intellectual dishonesty that includes cutting and pasting from the Internet, buying or borrowing an essay, or reusing an essay without the teacher’s approval. Students who plagiarize may expect a mark of zero and may face other serious consequences.

To avoid plagiarism:

- understand what plagiarism is
- give yourself enough time to complete the research project
- make careful notes and summaries throughout the research process
- respond to the notes with your own thoughts and ideas
- accurately record quotations, paraphrased information, and page numbers
- If in doubt, ask your teacher or teacher-librarian, or cite the source just in case.

CONSEQUENCES FOR ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The following disciplinary action will occur in the event of academic dishonesty:

- Reprimand from the teacher
- Remediation with teacher
- Zero on the assignment
- Teacher contacts parent(s)/guardian(s)
- Discussion with V.P.
- V.P. contacts parent(s)/guardian(s) and informs student’s teachers

PERSONAL ELECTRONIC DEVICES (e.g. cell phones, iPods, smartphone, tablets, laptops, hand held video game systems etc.)

The use of personal electronic devices is at the discretion of the individual classroom teacher. Please be aware that recording images of people, without permission, is illegal.
